

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

LARRY GENE HEGGEM,

Plaintiff,

v.

MONROE CORRECTIONAL COMPLEX,
DR. LAUREN, DR. KENNETH LOPIN, and
L. MANIGO-HEDT,

Defendants.

No. C11-5985 RBL/KLS

ORDER REGARDING PLAINTIFF'S
MOTION FOR RECUSAL

Before the Court is Plaintiff's Motion for Recusal. ECF No. 113. Plaintiff again asks that the undersigned recuse herself as she has "ignored Plaintiff's serious life-threatening health issues." Id.; see also ECF Nos. 57, 71 (previous motions to recuse).

DISCUSSION

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), a judge of the United States shall disqualify herself in any proceeding in which her impartiality "might reasonably be questioned." A federal judge also shall disqualify herself in circumstances where she has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding. 28 U.S.C. § 455(b)(1). Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 144:

Whenever a party to any proceeding in a district court makes and files a timely and sufficient affidavit that the judge before whom the matter is pending has a personal bias or prejudice either against him or in favor of any adverse party, such

1 judge shall proceed no further therein, but another judge shall be assigned to hear
2 such proceeding.

3 Under both 28 U.S.C. §144 and 28 U.S.C. § 455, recusal of a federal judge is appropriate
4 if “a reasonable person with knowledge of all the facts would conclude that the judge’s
5 impartiality might reasonably be questioned.” Yagman v. Republic Insurance, 987 F.2d 622, 626
6 (9th Cir.1993). This is an objective inquiry concerned with whether there is the appearance of 7 bias, not whether there is bias in fact. Preston v. United States, 923 F.2d 731, 734 (9th
8 Cir.1992); United States v. Conforte, 624 F.2d 869, 881 (9th Cir.1980). In Liteky v. United
9 States, 510 U.S. 540 (1994), the United States Supreme Court further explained the narrow basis
10 for recusal:
11

12 [J]udicial rulings alone almost never constitute a valid basis for a bias or partiality
13 motion. . . . [O]pinions formed by the judge on the basis of facts introduced or 14 events occurring in the course of the current proceedings, or of prior proceedings, 15 do not constitute a basis for a bias or partiality motion unless they display a deep 16 seated favoritism or antagonism that would make fair judgment impossible. Thus, judicial remarks during the course of a trial that are critical or disapproving of, or even hostile to, counsel, the parties, or their cases, ordinarily do not support a bias or partiality challenge.

17 Id. at 555.

18 This Court makes rulings in each case based upon the issues presented by the parties or 19 upon sua sponte review by the Court. The undersigned has no personal bias or reason to be 20 partial to one side or the other in this matter and accordingly, the undersigned finds no reason to 21 recuse herself voluntarily from this case, and declines to do so.

22 CONCLUSION

24 There is no reasonable basis for a voluntary recusal in this instance. However, Plaintiff’s
25 motion is referred to the Chief Judge for a determination of its merits. Local Rules W.D. Wash.
26 GR 8(c).

1 Accordingly it is hereby ORDERED that the undersigned DECLINES to recuse
2 voluntarily. Plaintiff's motion for recusal of the undersigned is REFERRED to Chief Judge
3 Marsha J. Pechman for decision and the Clerk of the Court is directed to place the motion for the 4 recusal of the undersigned on Judge Pechman's motion calendar.

5 This action and all motions currently pending before the Court are hereby STAYED
6 pending resolution of the recusal issue. No further motions shall be filed in this matter until the 7 stay is lifted. Any motion filed while the matter is stayed shall not be considered and shall be 8 dismissed.

10 The Clerk of the Court shall send a copy of this Order to Plaintiff and to any parties who 11 have appeared in this action.

13 DATED this 15th day of October, 2012.
